What people Say:

Jesse (JesseTheReader)

This was so great! I love Noelle Stevenson's writing & art style. Can she just write a million more graphic novels please?

ZoÃ«

Amazing! I loved the strong, unique characters, the plot, the humor, the art, and everything else!

Raeleen Lemay

hilarious, touching, with beautiful art and an interesting ending.

Great for fans of Vicious by V.E. Schwab and Rainbow Rowell's Fangirl (because the Simon Snow vibes were strong, let's be real)

Lola Reviewer

Pouahaha. What a story! What witty dialogs! Filled with humour, adventure, magic and friendship, it will certainly charm and entertain the hell out of you. This title used to be a DNF of mine, before I decided to give it a second shot. Glad I did! What made me stop reading it the first time around was the graphics, because this is a style that never appealed to me, but truth is, it just grows on you, as do the Nimona, huge bear hugs to you. Ballister, youâ€™ve got my admiration. Goldenloin,

. Noelle Stevenson, I wish youâ€™d write a sequel or an happy-ever-after epilogue. I want to see Ballister & Goldenloin kiss.

Notorious villain - Ballister Blackheart - gets a new sidekick to help him wreak havoc, obtain vengeance, and fight the Institution. But his new sidekick - Nimona - is a shapeshifter with a mysterious past and a mind of her own. Plus, he also has a love/hate relationship with his friend-turned-nemesis - Sir Ambrosius Goldenloin.

Heroes & villains, science & magic, bloody battles & so many giggles...

Well, I enjoyed it ;)
