I loved this book! No, I really mean it.

It was soooo good. Sweet, funny and sexy good. And when I say funny, I really mean hilarious.

There was a lot of this:

A lot of that:

And a little bit of:

Honestly, I was laughing my big ass off all over the place. It was a bit hard for me to even stop laughing when I read scene with Mr. 51, especially in Chapter 12. I'm just saying. This author has the magic touch and has created a spectacularly refreshing story!

Denisa

It was pretty cute.

It's nothing special, not a memorable read or anything, but it wasn't bad. The two had chemistry (nothing to write home about but not lacking either), the characters were pretty decent (although again, it felt like they were the same person but with more swearing), and it made me smile from time to time.

So it has all it needs to be a typical romance, although it has nothing to make it a great one.

Cute, sweet, maybe even funny, but normal. Good enough for a lazy afternoon thou

Enter Aubrey, life coach to those that are in the spot light. The team feels that bringing in Aubrey to help Brent clean up his act is just the thing to get the team's mojo going again.

but this life coach and her student meet before she makes it to Vegas.... stopping in Minneapolis to visit her sister Lainey on her way to Vegas..she ends up at a party and wakes up in the bed of one seriously hot guy after crashing the night before from a little too much alcohol. What follows is some hilarious banter and insults followed by them parting ways thinking neither will ever see the other
